MEDICINAL.

"I found your medicine a blessing to me and my family."

There are women who feel something like a burden against the children, who, after another mother of her kind, have lost strength. Men do not usually realize how much the mother gives to each child to her own loss. Women must be as part of the obligation of Nature and pay the debt accordingly. Yet in Nature's plan every child is a new life and fresh happiness. It isn't the children that steal the mother's strength. It is the unnatural drains and pains which weaken her.

Every woman who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has found in it the one thing woman has waited for. It stops the drains, heals inflammation and stops the pain. It gives the mother a pleasure and his life a blessing. No poisons or narcotics are contained in it.

"I found your medicine had done for other women," says Mrs. E. H. Smith, of New York City, N. Y., "so I bought it for my family. I found that it was a blessing to me and my family. I began in June and took three bottles of 'Pellies.' I had no more pain and could eat and sleep without any trouble. I feel like a new woman and now I weigh 125 lbs."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the bowels, cleanse the body of the corruption which clouds it.

SMASHED GLASS TO GET HATS.

Two young men who wore good clothing, but were hatless, staggered along upper Broadway, New York, at midnight Monday and asked every one they met to lend them a hat. They stopped at last in front of Hawe's hat store at the corner of Broadway and Thirtieth street, and in loud tones expressed admiration for hats in the glass showcase on the sidewalk. As the store was closed one of the men suggested after a while that they kick a hole in the case and get a hat free of cost. They hailed the suggestion with delight, raised their feet and kicked the glass out of the case. After trying on several hats they found two that fitted, put them on and walked away through the crowd that had gathered up Broadway. Policemen Evans in the Tenderloin station in west Thirtieth street had heard the crash of the breaking glass. He ran around to Broadway and the crowd explained what had happened and pointed to the men walking away with the hats. They saw the policeman and ran as well as they were able. He blew his whistle and pounded the sidewalk with his club. It was past midnight by that time and a score of policemen were passing through the neighboring streets on their way to return roll call in the station. Half a dozen responded to Evans's signals for assistance and ran after the men.

Evans chased the men through Thirtieth street to Sixth avenue. They ran into the saloon that was Silver Dollar saloon, and escaped by the front door. The policeman crowded into the saloon and examined the hat of every man in the place. Then they looked at the hats of men in other saloons, but they gained no clue to the case breakers. —N. Y. Sun.

OLD GERONIMO IS MAD.

After a long period of imprisonment, which he endured more like a ferocious beast than like a human being, Geronimo, one of the most blood-thirsty Indians who ever figured in history, has gone stark mad. He is a prisoner at Fort Sill, O. T. It cost the government a million dollars and hundreds of lives before he was safely behind iron bars. Deprived of his liberty as a punishment for his crimes, he could not stand the confinement. For fourteen years he has been a prisoner of war—the last ten at Fort Sill. For about half a century he led a band of bloodthirsty Apaches on the warpath. To the early settlers of the Southwest he was a terror. Because he successfully led the people in a bloody battle at the age of sixteen, he was crowned a war chief, in 1852 he and Victorio, with six hundred Apaches, were encountered by Mexican soldiers. Victorio was captured and beheaded, and Geronimo became a famous war chief. In March, 1886, after four years of constant chase, General Miles and Major General Lawton cornered Geronimo in the Four Peaks Basin, near Prescott, Arizona. After months of starvation, and after all hope of cutting their way through the cordon of troops surrounding them had gone, the Indians raised the white flag and surrendered. They were sent to the military post at Mount Vernon, Ala., but the climate there did not agree with them, many dying with consumption. About ten years ago Geronimo and his surviving braves were removed by the government to Fort Sill.

TO STUDY GOAT'S LYMPH.—One thousand physicians from various parts of the United States and Europe are going to Chicago the latter part of August to investigate the merits of goat's lymph as a curative agent in human disease. They will witness a number of experiments conducted by Chicago experts who have made a study of the lymph. Dr. Joseph R. Hawley, former professor of physical diagnosis in the Chicago Clinical School, has been deeply interested in the lymph since his attention was drawn to it two years ago by Dr. B. F. Roberts, of Green City, Mo., the discoverer of the medicinal virtues of the lymph. Dr. Hawley has conducted experiments on a wide scale and claims that the lymph can be used successfully in the treatment of a variety of diseases. One preparation is now used for disease of the nervous system and another for thyroid affections incident to goitre.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea. Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by all druggists.

After many intricate experiments scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestion. These have been combined in the preparation found in the human body and united with substances that build up the digestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspeptic to eat plenty of nourishing food while the stomach troubles are being radically cured by the medicinal agents it contains. It is pleasant to take and will give quick relief.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Chamberlain's Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
